

FACULTY OF MUSIC UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

FACULTY RECITAL

The Meridian Ensemble

Keith Atkinson, oboe; Che Anne Loewen, piano;
Amy Hamilton, Flute

Monday, October 21, 1991

at 8:00 pm

Walter Hall

PROGRAMME

The Meridian Ensemble

Keith Atkinson, oboe; Che Anne Loewen, piano;
Amy Hamilton, Flute

Trio, Op. 119

Allegro moderato
Adagio patetico
Rondo

Friedrich Kuhlau
(1786-1832)

Le Merle Noir

Olivier Messiaen
(b. 1908)

Sonata, Op. 166

Andantino
Allegretto
Molto Allegro

Camille Saint-Saëns
(1835-1921)

* * * * INTERMISSION * * * *

From The Magic Flute
Andante-Allegro
Andante

W.A Mozart
(1756-1791)
(arr. anon. c. 1809)

From Don Giovanni

Andante grazioso-Allegro
Allegro non tanto
Allegro molto

Triptyque (1966)

Lent
Très lent
Allegro

André Previn
(b. 1934)

Fantasie Concertante, Op. 36

Jules Demersseman
(1833-1866)

THE MERIDIAN ENSEMBLE

Devoted to the performance of standard and unusual wind chamber music, the Meridian Ensemble has been presenting concerts in Southern Ontario since 1988.

KEITH ATKINSON was a member of the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra before joining the Toronto Symphony as Associate Principal Oboe in 1985. A graduate of Indiana University and Northwestern University, Mr. Atkinson is an active recitalist and chamber music player in addition to his duties with the Toronto Symphony.

CHE ANNE LOEWEN is a member of the Faculty of Music at the University of Toronto and a well known vocal coach and accompanist. She studied at Wilfrid Laurier University before completing her Masters in Accompaniment at the University of Southern California. She collaborates with prominent Canadian singers and Toronto Symphony members, and her performances can be heard often on CBC.

AMY HAMILTON received degrees from the Eastman School of Music, Indiana University and Northwestern University, and is now a faculty member at Wilfrid Laurier University. She has performed with the Toronto Symphony, the Canadian Opera Company and the National Ballet of Canada, and appears in solo recitals and chamber concerts.

UNCOMING EVENTS AT THE FACULTY OF MUSIC

* * * *

Friday, October 25, 1991 at 8:00 pm

FACULTY ARTISTS SERIES

AMICI: Joaquin Valdepeñas, clarinet; David Hetherington, cello

Patricia Parr, piano

with guest artists

Andrew Dawes, violin and Jonathan Craig, viola

Walter Hall - $15/10 Students/Seniors

* * * *

Sunday, October 27, 1991 at 2:30 pm

ST. LAWERENCE STRING QUARTET

Geoff Nuttall & Barry Shiffman, violins

Lesley Robertson, viola; Marina Hoover, cello

with guest artists

Catherine Robbin, mezzo-soprano and Patricia Parr, piano

Walter Hall - $10/5 Students/Seniors

This concert is being co-produced by the CBC

* * * *